Welcome

Welcome to Naval Station Mayport, Fla., one of three major Navy installations in the Jacksonville area. Mayport is unique in that it is home to a busy seaport as well as an air facility. At Mayport, we take great pride in our mission-providing “The Finest Service to The Finest Fleet.”

Reporting In

Since it's commissioning in December 1942, Naval Station Mayport has grown to become the third largest fleet concentration area in the United States. Mayport's operational composition is unique, with a busy harbor capable of accommodating 34 ships and an 8,000-foot runway capable of handling any aircraft in the Department of Defense inventory.

With more than 3,400 acres, NS Mayport is host to more than 70 tenant commands including the aircraft carrier USS John F. Kennedy (CV 67), 21 other naval ships, and six Light Airborne Multi-purpose System (LAMPS) Mark III helicopter squadrons. NS Mayport is also the operational and training headquarters for the SH-60B Seahawk LAMPS MK III with a primary mission of Anti-Submarine Warfare.

The base is located at the mouth of the St. Johns River and the Atlantic Ocean near the small fishing village of Mayport, Fla., and Atlantic Beach, Fla. The warm climate here makes it ideal for outdoor recreation year-round, including boating, camping, fishing and water sports. Although Jacksonville has nearly one million residents, including 225,000 with Navy affiliation, the population is spread over a large geographic area, providing ample residential areas.

This guide will serve as a ready reference for the many services available at NS Mayport and the Jacksonville area. For more information, access the NS Mayport home page on the World Wide Web at www.nsmayport.navy.mil.

Before You Leave

Moving from family, friends, and familiar surroundings can be frightening and stressful. Planning ahead can make your move to Jacksonville easier.

When you receive your orders, make an appointment with the Personal Property Office at your current station. They can explain the different shipping options you have and remove some of the headaches of moving.

To ensure a place for your family to stay for the first few days, consider making reservations in advance at the Navy

Lodge or a local motel. There are several motels close to NS Mayport.

The Navy Lodge is located on base between the Ocean Breeze Conference Center and the swimming pool. Room rates begin at $54 per night. It has 52 rooms including 20 single rooms and 32 double rooms with kitchenettes. The Navy Lodge also offers temporary lodging in the form of 19 two-bedroom fully furnished mobile homes at a cost of $50 per day. These units are adjacent to Lake Wonderwood off Moale Avenue. Because of the limited number of mobile homes, we strongly recommend that personnel on PCS orders make reservations as soon as you receive orders. Reservations may be made by those under orders up to 90 days in advance by calling (904) 247-3964 or 1-800-NAVY-INN, or by mail to: Navy Lodge, NS Mayport, Mayport, FL 32228. Be sure to include your expected arrival date (check in between 3-6 p.m.) and enclose a copy of your orders.

Your whole family should be involved in the move. Let them browse through brochures and help plan the trip.

Naval Station Mayport

This can alleviate frustration and let them share the adventure.

Moving Checklist

The following is a checklist of things you should do before moving day:

- Notify the post office of your forwarding address.
- Send change of address cards to magazines, credit card companies, and others as needed.
- Stop any home delivery services and settle bills.
- Notify utility companies.
- Transfer insurance on cars, homes, etc., and check to see if personal possessions are covered during the move.
- Notify your children's schools of the move and arrange to get or forward their school records.
- Get records from any private doctors or dentists.

Remember: hand carry important documents you will need upon arrival such as birth certificates for your children to register for child care or school; if seeking employment, bring school transcripts, updated resume or SF171, professional certifications or licenses; proof of car insurance; family immunization records; pet registration license; and letters of credit from previous utility companies in order to waive utility deposits. Navy Federal Credit Union offers the Utility Deposit Guarantee Program; for $10 they will issue a certificate to members that can be used in lieu of a deposit.

Taxi Cabs

Gator City Cabs (249-6289) and Beaches Yellow Cab (247-5600) provide service into the community.

City Buses

BH3 runs between the base and beaches area, passing the Commissary and Navy Exchange. BH1 runs between beaches and downtown Jacksonville, passing Regency Square, movie theatres, and restaurants. Exact fare is required. The fare for BH3 is 60 cents. BH1 costs $1.10 to ride from Beaches Plaza Shopping Center to downtown. Printed schedules are available on the buses, at branch libraries and from the Jacksonville Transportation Authority.

Auto Registration

If you are on active duty, you may drive in Florida without getting a Florida driver's license with a valid license from your home of record; however, if you or your spouse claim Florida's homestead exemption, or you, your spouse, or child become employed here, you must obtain a Florida driver's license. Licenses must be obtained within 30 days of the above actions. A new license costs $20 and is valid for six years. License renewal is $15 and replacement cost is $10.

When registering your vehicle, only personnel who have home state driver's licenses and car registrations are exempt from licensing themselves and their cars in Florida. Florida does have a special reduced auto registration fee for drivers who do not intend to establish Florida as their home or record. To get the reduced rate, take a copy of your orders to a local tag agency. For more information call 630-1916 for the tax collector's office (car tag) and 448-4350 for the Department of Motor Vehicles for title and registration information.

Florida Motor Vehicle Insurance Laws

Both the Financial Responsibility Law and the No-Fault Law require insurance coverage. Minimum coverage required is $10,000 bodily injury liability, $20,000 bodily injury to two or more persons, $10,000 property damage liability, or $30,000 combined single limits. To protect yourself and others, carry liability insurance on any vehicle you own or drive, including motorcycles. The vehicle must be insured at the time the vehicle is registered in your name, even if the car is inoperable or in storage. If you cancel your insurance, you must surrender your tag and registration to the nearest driver's license office.

On-Base Vehicle Registration

All military and civilian personnel assigned to duty or employed at Naval Station Mayport will, within 30 days of reporting aboard the station, register their privately owned vehicles with the Security Department Pass and Identification Vehicle Registration Branch, located in Building 1591. This requirement includes vehicles of personnel transferring into Mayport from other installations with valid Department of Defense (DoD) decals issued by the previous duty station.

Seat Belts/Child Restraints

Occupants of all motor vehicles operating on base and in the state of Florida are required to wear safety belts. Gate sentries are authorized and directed to inform personnel of this requirement prior to allowing entry to the base. Station police are authorized to issue traffic citations for violations.

In accordance with Florida statutes:

- Every operator of a motor vehicle, while transporting a child in a passenger car, van or truck on the roadways, streets or highways of this state, will, if the child is five years of younger, provide for the protection of the child by properly using a crash-tested, federally-approved child restraint. For children through three years of age, the restraint device must be a separate carrier. For children ages four and five, a separate carrier or seat belt must be used.

- Personnel who cannot wear seat belts due to a medical condition shall have in their possession a certified doctor's statement for presentation to the Security Department, stating that a condition exists which precludes their wearing seat belts.
- Personnel who wish to operate a vintage motor vehicle on base shall have appropriately installed seat belts, regardless of antique status, personal convenience or preference.

Uniform Regulations

Security

The Security Office and Pass and ID are located in Building 1591, next to the Main Gate. The Pass and ID Office assists newly reporting personnel and visitors with information, station decals, or visitors' passes. A driver's license, proof of automobile insurance, emission testing, and vehicle registration are required to receive a station decal.

The following may answer some of your security questions prior to arrival:

Traffic Accident Investigations and Reports. All traffic accidents, regardless of severity, occurring on station will be reported to the Security Department (270-5583).

Bicycle Operating Rules. Bicycle riders will obey all traffic regulations, traffic control devices, and speed limits when operating a bicycle on station streets, roadways, and designated bike paths. Bike riding on station streets is permitted; however, station sidewalks are designated as bike paths and are recommended for bike users where feasible. Bicycles used for both day and night riding must be equipped with a white front light, white front reflector, a red taillight and a red rear reflector visible for 600 feet at night. Bikes not equipped with front and rear lights are restricted to use from sunrise to sunset (as published in the station Plan of the Week) hours only. In any case, all bikes are required to have front and rear reflectors. All personnel, including family members, riding a bicycle on a Department of Defense installation or on associated family housing areas must wear an ANSI or Snell Memorial Foundation approved Bicycle Safety Helmet.

Roller Skates/Skateboards. No person on roller skates, in-line skates, or riding in or by means of any coaster, toy vehicle, or similar device may go upon any roadway except while crossing a street at a crosswalk; and when so crossing such person shall be granted all rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to pedestrians. Personnel will wear ANSI approved helmet and light colored clothing. During restricted visibility conditions, reflective clothing shall be worn. Elbow pads, kneepads and gloves are strongly recommended.

Dangerous Weapons. Dangerous weapons are defined as any type of firearm (including blank guns), explosive device (including fireworks), compressed air or gas powered gun, metallic knuckles, black-jack, billie club, metal pipe, shuriken, nunchaku, any knife which, when opened, fully extends over six inches in length, and all quick opening knives of the switch or spring type, regardless of blade length, or any knife other than an ordinary pocket knife, larger than three-and-one-half inches in the closed position. Dangerous weapons shall also include short chain lengths, weighted hoses, straight razors or weapons made utilizing razor blades as part of the weapon, bows and arrows, and spear/blow guns. All such items are strictly prohibited on Naval Station Mayport. Sheath knives or buck knives in a scabbard may be worn while actually engaged in work requiring their use, but may never be carried in a concealed manner or carried away from the work site on the user's person. Knives for use in work, fishing or other authorized purpose shall be kept in a locked box or in the trunk of a vehicle when being transported within the naval station. Fleet and station personnel who keep firearms in their respective armories or in Navy Housing must, when removing the firearm for hunting, target practice, etc., notify the Security Department prior to taking the firearm directly off station and notify the Security Office upon returning to the station.

General Fishing Passes. Routine fishing aboard the station is NOT open to the general public. Only persons holding a valid military ID card, active duty and retired, their dependents, or U.S. Civil Service employees and their bona-fide guests may fish in authorized areas aboard the station. A State of Florida fishing license is required to fish in Lake Wonderwood. Children under the age of 10 years must have adult supervision while fishing.

Pets. Residents of Navy family housing are permitted small caged birds and fish in aquariums of 50 gallons or less. Other pets are not permitted in William S. Johnson Housing. Residents of Ribault Bay Village, Bennett Shores and Mobile Home Park are limited to two other pets (dogs or cats). The privilege of keeping pets in quarters shall be contingent upon the owner ensuring the pet is not a nuisance to others and does not destroy the property of others or the government. Dogs and cats shall receive annual rabies vaccinations. All dogs and cats shall be vaccinated and registered with the Mayport Naval Station Security Office. To help readily identify lost dogs and cats, pet owners are required to have a micro-chip implanted into their domestic dog or cat at the on-base Veterinary Treatment Facility. A nominal fee will be required to facilitate this procedure. In addition, residents are required to register animals with the City of Jacksonville and the animal must wear a vaccination tag. When outside, pets must either be tethered or on a leash. The pet must be with a family member at all times. All animals must be kept inside the quarters when the owner is not at the quarters. Pet owners must always clean up pet wastes. Residents are prohibited from keeping exotic pets (pigeons, doves, poultry, large birds, wild animals, ferrets, raccoons, rats, mice snakes, rabbits, etc.). Pets are allowed on the beach provided they are on a leash. No pets of any kind are permitted in bachelor quarters.

Support Services

American Red Cross provides services to military personnel and their families through a network of more than 3,000 chapters and offices at U.S. military installations throughout the world. These services include: emergency communications between active duty members and their families, access to emergency financial assistance, confidential referrals to social services agencies, CPR classes, blood services, disaster assistance, and volunteer opportunities.

The Mayport American Red Cross offers a wide variety of educational opportunities at a discounted rate for active duty members and their families. Adult, Infant and Child CPR classes are available as well as First Aid, Babysitting and Basic Aid Training for Children. Special programs for children include Whale Tales (classroom water safety) and Scrubby Bear (basic hygiene), complete with costumed characters.

The American Red Cross at NS Mayport is located in Building 1358 behind the bowling alley. The phone numbers are 246-1395 or 270-5241. Hours are Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. However, assistance for emergency communications to military is available for military members and their spouses 24 hours a day by calling toll-free 1-877-272-7337. Military family members other than spouses can call 246-1395 for military emergency communications or can contact their local Red Cross office. For 24-hour disaster assistance, house fires, or flooding, call our chapter's main office at 358-8091.

The American Red Cross has recently incorporated blood donation services to Jacksonville, although they have provided blood derivatives to area residents since 1987. Experienced Red Cross staff provides donors with assurance and quality service as they give the gift of life. Donors learn valuable information about their blood and receive a mini-physical; pulse, temperature, blood pressure and blood count, all to make sure it is safe for donors to donate.

Donating blood is a valuable volunteer service to our community. On average, the American Red Cross provides more than 12,500 blood derivatives to the Jacksonville community every year. A single blood donation can be separated into components and used to help three or four people. Every pint donated saves lives, yet only five percent of the American population donates blood. Every donation makes a difference. Almost everyone who lives to be 75 years or older will need blood at least once in their lifetime. Blood products can be used many different ways. Red cells are used to help accident victims, surgery patients, and anemic patients. Platelets are used for cancer and leukemia patients undergoing chemotherapy. Plasma is used to treat patients suffering from burns or shock.

Blood Drives can be scheduled every two months or six times a year. Schedule one today, the next need could be yours. For more information on donating blood or to schedule a blood drive call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE.

Volunteers lead your Red Cross organization. They teach classes, assist in disaster relief efforts, coordinate blood drives, and provide administrative support. The Red Cross also maintains a speakers bureau that provides staff and volunteers to speak at pre-deployment briefs, indoctrination, disaster preparedness briefs, fire prevention classes, hurricane preparedness classes, and special programs for children.

If you are interested in scheduling a class, coordinating a blood drive, or volunteering, please contact the Mayport American Red Cross.

Child Development Centers

At Naval Station Mayport, providing quality child care to the Navy's "smallest" fleet is a top priority. The staff of the Child Development Center (CDC) believes that each child is an individual of great worth and that each day of a child's life leads toward the growth and development of a healthy, intelligent, and contributing member of society.

The CDC program is based on The National Association for the Education of Young Children's guidelines on Developmentally Appropriate Practice in Early Childhood Programs. We strive to meet the needs of and promote the physical, social, emotional, and cognitive development of the children, while responding to the needs of the family. The caregivers in the children's classroom are trained on how to develop a developmentally appropriate plan for your child. A weekly curriculum plan will be posted in each classroom so that you will know what to expect for your child daily.

Activities that your child will be given the opportunity to participate in include: creative art, music, fine and gross motor development, sand and water play, songs and finger plays, story times, promotion of a positive self-image, readiness skills for math, reading, and writing, dramatic play and many activities to promote positive social skills. The children have a great deal of free choice in selecting from many different activities in which there are no right or wrong answers. All children, regardless of the program (i.e., full-time, drop-in, preschool/playgroup) will have the same opportunities to engage in the various activities while they are at the center. We will strive to encourage, challenge and assist each child to grow as fast and as far as possible by meeting the needs of each child and building a positive self-concept and sense of control over one's own identity.

The childcare program is accredited by the National Academy of Early Childhood Programs. The Academy administers a national, voluntary, professionally sponsored accreditation system for all types of schools and child care centers.

The Academy is a division of the National Association for the Education of Young Children, the nation's largest organization of early childhood educators.

The status of the sponsor determines eligibility of children to enroll in Navy Child Development Programs. Eligibility is based on the parent who has physical custody of the child. Eligible patrons include military personnel, DoD civilian personnel, reservists on active duty or inactive duty for training and retired members. Priorities are as follows:

- A. Active duty single parents with custody, active duty military couples, active duty with a working spouse.
- B. Active duty with a non-working spouse.
- C. Military retirees, DoD Civilian Employees.

Staff to Child Ratios

0-12 Mo.	1 Adult to 4 children
12-24 Mo.	1 Adult to 5 children
24-36 Mo.	1 Adult to 7 children
36+ Mo.	1 Adult to 12 children

Navy staffing ratios are based on current philosophies of developmentally appropriate practice. These limits will not be exceeded. These regulations are necessary to ensure a safe and healthy environment with ample supervision. The Child Development Center staff members are trained in each area of developmental care as well as in basic first aid and CPR and continuous training in many areas is mandatory. Preschool/Playgroup follow the Duval County School Calendar and are also offered during the summer months. Fees are based on a monthly calendar and are not reduced for holidays or vacations except for the December holiday break. Preschool/Playgroup is an enrichment program that is designed to expose three- to five- year olds to a classroom environment as well as to other children their age. Activities are planned to meet the needs of the children with emphasis placed on social skills and readiness skills for children who will be entering kindergarten. Sometimes, childcare is not immediately available because of waiting lists. In order to give parents the best service possible, MWR certifies Child Development Home Care providers. For information call 270-6962 or 270-6961.

Public Works

The Public Works Office consists of the Environmental, Self-Help, and Public Works Departments. Sound environmental stewardship is one of the responsibilities we hold in the highest regard. We are committed to protection and preserving the fragile environment entrusted to us by our neighbors. We have nearly a full mile of beachfront, 4.5 miles of river shoreline, and almost half of our 3,400 acres is classified as wetlands, brackish marshlands, or beaches. Manatees, ospreys, and sea turtles share the base with us. Clearly our obligation to safeguard them and conserve the environment is immense. Naval Station Mayport has been designated the Navy's East Coast Environmental Leadership Base which will lead the Navy into the 21st century. We also have a very aggressive waste management and recycling program on base. The recycling programs recover paper, aluminum, steel, scrap metal, glass, and paper with the funds being filtered back into our Morale, Welfare, and Recreation fund.

The Public Works Center provides facilities management service with the highest possible degree of quality and responsiveness for the naval station and their tenant commands. Our services include water, electricity, contract work, and transportation services, just to name a few.

With the demanding growth in construction improvements at Mayport we have redesigned our Self-Help program to fit our customer's needs. Any civilian or military member who wants to improve their facility at Mayport is authorized to use the program. We have two Seabees and five support personnel available to assist you and a warehouse where we store paint, lumber, plywood, trim, hardware, nails, screws, as well as a tool-room to provide everything from hammers to compressors. We have displays of construction materials and techniques, "how to" booklets, and audio aides; required classroom instruction is available to the self-help customer. Our construction capabilities here at Mayport are unlimited, so please utilize the program and save your command and government civilian contractual costs.

History of the Mayport Area

Sailors have been flocking to the area surrounding the present site of Naval Station Mayport for more than 400 years. With its ease of access to inland waterways and the open ocean, the early Sailors' interest in the region has resulted in an important military base with strong ties to the community.

In 1562, French Huguenot Commodore Jean Ribault, then said to be the greatest captain on the seas, was selected by the famous Admiral Gaspard de Coligny to lead an expedition to Florida; his mission was to form a French Protestant colony. Ribault arrived off what is now known as Mayport, near the mouth of the St. Johns River, on May 1st of that year. Landing on the north side of the river, now Ft. George, it is said they offered up prayers while the Native Americans looked on with attentive silence. They were received warmly by the Native Americans, including Satourbia, their chief.

The following morning, on May 2, Ribault entered to the south side of the river with his captains, gentlemen, soldiers and others. They had with them a stone monument which they placed, according to Ribault's narrative, on a sand hill on the south side of the river near its mouth and plainly visible from the sea.

In 1564, de Coligny dispatched another French Huguenot, Commodore Ren Goulaine de Laudonniere, to establish a colony near the mouth of the St. Johns River. The Spanish were fearful of French domination in north Florida. Their "treasure fleet" followed the gulf stream up the coast of Florida, past the mouth of the St. Johns River, and discovered the French positions in the area before crossing the Atlantic Ocean for Spain. With the arrival of this news in Spain, the government dispatched a fleet under command of Pedro de Menendez to the Mayport area to prevent continued French occupation.

At about the same time the Spanish Fleet set sail for this area, reinforcements commanded by Jean Ribault were sent by de Coligny to the French colony. The two fleets, French and Spanish, met near the site of this base, but the Spanish retired to St. Augustine. Soon afterward, the French fleet followed to drive the Spanish away; but, as the French fleet was ready to attack, the ships were swept to the south and wrecked by a violent hurricane. Menendez took advantage of the situation and moved overland to destroy the then defenseless French colony (Ft. Caroline) at St. Johns Bluff. After seizing this area for Spain, and executing the French prisoners, Menendez set up small military outposts: one at the present site of Naval Station Mayport, one immediately across the river, and one at the fort at St. Johns Bluff.

A French expedition under the command of De Gourgues set sail to take revenge for this act. In 1568 De Gourgues entered the St. Johns River and seized the Spanish blockhouse at Mayport, as well as the other two outposts in this area. In reprisal, he executed all the Spanish and then left for France. In 1580, on the river near the base, the Spanish destroyed a French warship. Six years later the English fleet under Sir Francis Drake attempted to land here after attacking St. Augustine, but was prevented by high winds.

Through old maps, there is evidence of continuous occupation of the Naval Station site by Native Americans, Spanish, English, and Americans since the 16th Century. The Native Americans in this area were wiped out by slave traders from South Carolina under Governor Moore in the early 18th Century.

During the Revolutionary War period, Florida was occupied by the English. The river was patrolled by a group of British vessels called the St. Johns Fleet whose duty was to prevent American sympathizers from crossing the river from the south side to the north. During this time many Spanish citizens moved into the Mayport area from the New Smyrna colony. Many of their descendants still live in the City of Mayport, adjacent to the Naval Station.

At the outbreak of the American Civil War, a Confederate company from Jacksonville, the Jacksonville Light Infantry, set up a fort on the present Naval Station. They named it Fort Steele in honor of their commanding officer, a medical officer named Dr. Steele. Steele was soon transferred to the Confederate Medical Corps and command of the company was assumed by Captain Doggett. Because the fort was considered indefensible, the guns were buried and the Jacksonville Company was made part of the main Confederate forces in Tennessee. A number of years before the Navy acquired this site, these guns were discovered near the present pilothouse and were recovered.

During the late 19th Century the site of this base was a fashionable resort area. At that time there were no jetties and the wooded area of the base, fronted by a beach, was a shore of the south channel of the St. Johns River. Summer visitors from Jacksonville had their cottages on the area of the base rather than at the beach. In the early 20th century, the site was acquired by a family of northern visitors who established their residences here and set up a group of cottages for rental.

In 1890, there was a flourishing little colony where most of the installations of the Naval Station are now located. There was a red brick lighthouse, the foundation of which was plainly visible about 100 feet out surrounded by three feet of water to a 1,000-foot pier at Wonderwood. There was another large brick home built on the beach, however, a tremendous high tide accompanied by a strong northeast wind swept it and the lighthouse away. In 1932, Sidney Hartley's general store was located where the Security Office is now. Texaco gas was sold here at 21 cents a gallon.

Base beginnings

Under the Hepburn Act of May 17, 1938 (Public Law 528 of the 75th Congress) the Honorable Claude Swanson appointed a board to be headed by Rear

Adm. A. J. Helpburn to investigate "a southeastern naval air base." In communication to Congress on Dec. 27, 1938, "the board recommends the establishment of a major base at Jacksonville having the following characteristics:

- Facilities for two carrier groups (planned with a view to expansion to four carrier groups)
- Facilities for three patrol squadrons (planned with a view to accommodate six squadrons)
- Facilities for two utility squadrons
- Facilities for complete-plane and engine overhaul
- Berthing for carriers at inner end of entrance jetty
- A channel to permit tender berthing at piers at Camp Foster
- Development of an outlying patrol plane operating area in the lower Banana River"

The citizens of Duval County (Jacksonville) promised the Navy Department they would buy the land for the main

Naval Air Base and Carrier Berthing (Naval Station Mayport). Upon passage of H.R. 2880, 76th Congress, 1st Session, which authorized the projects contained in House Document 65, the citizens of Duval County on July 18, 1939 passed a $1,100,000 bond issue to purchase land for the two stations.

In April 1939, the Navy Department initiated plans for this area which included a site along the south jetties for the development of an aircraft carrier basin. In December of that year, on the basis of a report made by Commander Carl Cotter, officer-in-charge of construction, Ribault Bay was selected as the location for such a basin. The basin was dredged to 29 feet and used by patrol craft, target and rescue boats and jeep carriers during World War II. At war's end, $780,000 had been appropriated to build a carrier pier on the north side of the basin. This appropriation, with many others, was cancelled and no improvements were made. On the basis of a proposal submitted by Lieutenant

Growth and development

On April 1, 1944, the air facility at Mayport was commissioned a Naval Auxiliary Air Station (NAAS), commanded by Sanders. At the same time, the Sea Frontier Base was maintained in the bay area. The next year, the Naval Auxiliary Air Station took over the entire site including the pier and docking facilities. During World War II, the U.S. Naval Section Base and Naval Auxiliary Air Station provided vital support to the country's war effort in terms of personnel and logistics. Following the war, both the Naval Section Base and NAAS were de-commissioned and placed in a caretaker status. The Coast Guard took over the base and operated a small "Boot Camp" there for several years, but they vacated Mayport in late 1947 due to budget cuts.

Mayport was reactivated again in June, 1948 as a Naval Outlying Landing Field under the cognizance of the Commanding Officer, Naval Air Station, Jacksonville. Three years later the land area of Navy Mayport facilities was increased to 1,680 acres and work began on extending the runway. Through the late 1940's and mid-1950's, the Mayport base continued to grow to accommodate new classes of ships and extended runways for the increasing air traffic.

On Oct. 29, 1952, USS Tarawa (CVS-40), under command of Capt. J. H.

Munroe entered Ribault Bay to become the first capital ship to utilize Mayport's new carrier basin. Operating as a Naval Auxiliary Landing Field under cognizance of the Commanding Officer, U.S. Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Mayport received much assistance in servicing Tarawa including tug boats from Naval Station, Green Cove Springs, Fla.

In 1953, the U.S. Corps of Engineers received $350,000 to re-dredge the basin to 40 plus two feet so Midway class carriers could enter the basin. The first of these ships was USS Coral Sea in 1954. By 1955, Mayport had grown considerably in land area, command importance, and activity, and represented an investment of nearly $10 million. A master jet runway 8,000 feet long and a 4,200 foot long runway were in use at the station and many new structures including an operations building had been built at Mayport. On July 1, 1955, in appropriate ceremonies, Mayport became once again a Naval Auxiliary Air Station. Vice Admiral Thomas Combs, Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Air) delivered the main address at the commissioning ceremonies in the presence of an assemblage of military officials and civilian dignitaries. Captain John Thatch, commanding officer, Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, read the commissioning directive and thereafter Commander William Hotrod, formerly officer-in-charge of the Naval Auxiliary Landing Field, read orders designating him commanding officer of the U.S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Mayport. When commissioned in 1955, the station had an assigned allowance of eight officers, 230 enlisted personnel, and employed 101 civilians.

In April of 1955, Rear Admiral Robert Goldwaite, Commander, Carrier Division Two, moved his headquarters to Mayport. This was the first time in Jacksonville's history that such headquarters were shore based here. The following year the aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt (CVA-42) arrived in Mayport, its new homeport, from Bremerton, Washington. This was also the first time Navy families moved here with the ship. An "ordnance clearance" of 462 acres in 1956 brought the total land area of Mayport to 1,888 acres; and in 1957 another 540 acres of land was acquired to bring the land area total to 2,428 acres.

For the remainder of the twentieth century, Naval Station Mayport continued to expand to accommodate more ships, Sailors and their families, and improvements in base facilities. In May 1959, for example, construction of the destroyer slip at the U.S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Mayport, became a link in the nation's newest, fastest automatic teletypewriter communications system. At this time, the Navy put into operation a 48 thousand-mile network interconnecting 236 teletypewriter stations in 31 states; this resulted in an immediate seventy-percent increase in communications efficiency at Mayport.

Shortly before noon on June 8, 1959, the first official dispatch of U.S. Mail was launched from the guided missile submarine USS Barbero (SSG 317), in international waters at sea. Twenty-two minutes later the Regulus I Missile, carrying about 3,000 pieces of mail, landed at the U.S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Mayport. Among those officials present for the event was Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield who stated, upon successful landing of the "Missile Mail" at Mayport, "This peacetime employment of a guided missile for the important and practical purpose of carrying mail, is the first known official use of missiles by any Post Office Department of any nation." On July 8, 1959, more than six thousand special souvenir envelopes, commemorating the landing of the first official "Missile Mail" at Mayport, and containing an historical brochure concerning the station, were mailed to stamp collectors and Post Office Department officials throughout the world. Aside from being an item of collection value to those who received it, the souvenir envelope and its enclosure served historical purpose and brought credit to the naval service commensurate with its part in the project to develop swifter transmission of mail.

As helicopter aviation evolved during the Cold War, Mayport became the East Coast home for the Light Airborne Multi-Purpose System (LAMPS) MK III community. As a reflection of growth, Mayport Naval Air Facility was re-designated as a Naval Air Station in 1988.

Significant events

Mayport's location has given its home ported ships many opportunities to participate in both military operations and several other national interest projects. On 23 February 1962, the Mayport based USS Noa (DD-841) was a recovery ship for the Mercury space capsule Friendship Seven and Astronaut Lt. Col. John Glenn, Jr., the first American to orbit the Earth. On June 11, 1965, the carrier USS Wasp brought Lt. Col. Jim McDivitt and Lt. Col. Ed White and the Gemini 4 capsule to Naval Station Mayport following their completion of 62 Earth orbits in four days.

During the period from Oct. 21 to Nov. 22, 1962, the Naval Station was deeply involved in the "Cuban Missile Crisis." The Second Marine Division set up an advanced staging area on the station. Naval Station Mayport provided logistic support to Naval Amphibious Units, PHIBRON 12 and PHIBGRU 4; and to fleet support ships USS Vermillion and USS Yancey and the carriers USS Saratoga, USS Lexington, USS Thetis Bay, USS Boxer, and USS Okinawa.

In February 1973, Naval Station Mayport hit the front pages of nearly every newspaper in the United States as all hands turned out to greet the "Spirit of 76" and its passengers, President and Mrs. Richard Nixon, and their daughter Julie Nixon Eisenhower. During their short stay, the First Family visited USS Albany to greet the President's son-in-law, Lt. j.g. David Eisenhower, an Albany crewmember. In responding to the many signs reading "Thank you for bringing our boys home," after their deployment, the President told the crowd at Mayport that it was his responsibility to see that the boys came home to a peace with honor and that "it wouldn't have been possible if it had not been for the people like the 4,500 men of Saratoga. It was a long and tiring 10-month assignment, but what you did helped to make the great event possible.”

During 1982 and 1983, several ships home ported at Mayport Naval Station were involved in operations off the coast of Beirut, Lebanon. Three ships and DESRON 24, home ported here, were involved in “Operation Urgent Fury,” the rescue operation in Grenada in 1983.

On May 17, 1987, the Mayport based guided missile Frigate USS Stark (FFG-31) was struck by two Iraqi missiles while operating in the Persian Gulf. The resulting explosion and fires took the lives of 37 crewmen. President and Mrs. Ronald Reagan attended the memorial service at Mayport five days later.

In August 1990, After Iraq invaded Kuwait in the Middle East, several Mayport units in the USS Saratoga Battle Group, including USS Leyte Gulf, USS Vreeland, USS Impervious, and USS McInerney, deployed to the region for several months.

In January 1991, Operation Desert Shield became Operation Desert Storm when full-scale military operations began against Iraq. March saw the rapid conclusion of Desert Storm and the return of some of Mayport’s units. The USS Saratoga Battle Group returned to Mayport in late March; the final Mayport unit to return home was USS McInerney in early July.

In December, 1998, USS Gettysburg was heavily involved with the USS Enterprise Battle Group during Operation “Desert Fox,” against Iraqi military targets. Most recently, USS Philippine Sea was the first unit to launch Tomahawk missiles in March of 1999, in support of Operation “Allied Force,” a NATO Operation against Serbia.

Naval Station Mayport at the turn of the Century

The new century finds Naval Station Mayport thriving with activity and well positioned to serve as a vehicle for mission readiness. While the face of the base is familiar to many who have watched it grow for years, the infrastructure has evolved with, and anticipated, developments in technology, service, and family needs.

While the teletypewriter system and “missile mail” program provided significant improvements to message processing and mail delivery in 1959, developments in e-mail and digital communications dramatically changed the capabilities of both the ships and squadrons assigned to Mayport, and the base shore facilities that support them. Deployed squadrons and ships are equipped with Local Area Networks (LAN) and satellite connectivity that provide nearly instantaneous message processing, internet access, and e-mail capability which has a very positive effect on crew morale. The shore facilities are similarly connected to the Internet and many offices have improved efficiency and productivity through electronic correspondence.

The more things change, the more they stay the same; so it goes for Naval Station Mayport. In 1959 the Main Gate to the base was moved to accommodate a growing base and improve security; in 2000 it was moved again for the same reasons. The golf course on base was opened in 1960 and is under renovation in 2000. In 1956 USS Franklin D. Roosevelt (CVA-42) was home ported in Mayport; in 2000 USS Roosevelt (DDG 80) brought the Roosevelt family name back to Mayport. In 1965, the Carrier Pier Snack Bar was opened; in March 2000, a new Single Sailor Center opened for Mayport population of single Sailors. Named “Planet Mayport,” it provides a computer/net surfing room, computer game area, large screen TV room, movie theater, laundromat, ATM, library, and many other amenities. The base continues to rehabilitate and modernize its housing areas; its piers are undergoing renovation; and the Morale, Welfare, and Recreation team continues to provide the base population with the best in entertainment, value, and convenience.

The Navy at Mayport covers 3,409 acres and is the third largest Naval Facility in the continental United States. As a major Surface and Air Warfare organization, Mayport remains dedicated to providing “The Finest Service to the Finest Fleet,” as we head into the 21st century.

Make sure to bring all the necessary documents when you're ready to register your motor vehicles. You will need a driver's license, title or proof of out-of-state financing agreement, out-of-state vehicle registration, proof of personal injury protection insurance and property damage liability, and the vehicle itself.

Motor vehicle owners with Jacksonville/Duval County Florida addresses must pass a Vehicle Emissions Test and present proof of Florida liability and personal injury protection insurance. Florida tag rates vary according to type of vehicle and weight.

Driver's License

A driver's license must be obtained within 30 days for any driver who becomes a resident of Florida, registers a child in a Florida public school, or is employed in Florida. Florida Law requires drivers to obtain a Florida driver's license within 90 days after accepting employment, enrolling a child in public school or applying for a homestead exemption.

All applicants, including military members and their family members with valid out of state licenses, must pass driving, written and vision tests, and must be 16 years of age or older to qualify for a Florida driver's license. A restricted license, which permits driving when accompanied by a licensed driver at least 18-years-old, can be obtained at the age of 15.

Appointments are available at driver's license offices throughout the Jacksonville area and are recommended to alleviate lengthy waiting times. Visit any examination location for a free handbook of Florida driving laws. For appointments at the beaches or Mayport, call 270-2512, and for Jacksonville, call 777-2121.
